CHESHIRE TRIO HAVE THE A FACTOR

Thu 21st April 2011 12.19PM

A TRIO of Cheshire students proved they have real talent – when they took part in their college’s own version of the hugely popular TV show The X Factor. Owain Williams, from Alderley Edge and Jason New, from Bramhall, both 18, finished second in the contest at Abbey College in Manchester. Their fantastic dancing wowed both the audience and the judges. They were joined as runners up in the competition by fellow dancer and 18-year-old Rohini Aggarwal, also from Bramhall. Their performances were judged by a four-strong panel of teachers from the independent college which is based in the centre of Manchester.
